STEWARDSHIP CONFERENCE

State Ministerial Banquet Tonight
Before Opening Program When
Guests Will Be Welcomed

Preliminary to the formal opening tonight of the eighty-fifth annual convention of the Christian churches
of Indiana, which will be attended by one thousand or more delegates and
visitors, the annual session of the Indiana Ministerial association of the church was in progress this afternoon at the Main Street Christian church, holding a conference on
"Stewardship."

Forty visitors had registered in the
registration room, in the basement
of the church, at one o'clock this afternoon, and people coming for the convention were arriving by the
scores on every train, interurban car
and by automobile, so that it was estimated that there would be two hundred or more convention guests
in the city by night.

Automobiles were in waiting in front of the church ready to take visitors to the homes to which they had been assigned, as fast as they arrived and registered. Many automobiles bore signs inviting convention visitors to ask for a ride to any part of the city they wished to go.

Many of the convention ministers
and delegates, whom it was known
would attend, were assigned to homes in advance, and as fast as they arrived, they were given cards
showing where they were to stay.
Mrs. Martha Grindle was in charge
of the assignment of convention visitors and worked out this system to avoid delays.

The convention sermon, the first
set address of the conference, with the exception of the welcoming addresses, will be delivered tonight by the Rev. W. E. Moore of Marion on the subject, "Interpreting Religion."

This will be preceded by devotional exercises conducted by H. H. Halley of Chicago, Bible reader, who conducted a two weeks meeting here
during the past winter, and by addresses of welcome by the Rev. L.
E. Brown, pastor of the Rushville
church, on behalf of the local congregation, and by Robert E. Mansfield, on behalf of the citizens of the whole community. There will also be a sacred concert by the choir of the Rushville church.

PORCH FURNITURE THIEVES BUSY AGAIN

Police Receiving Complaints of Rugs
and Other Fixtures Being Stolen

TIRE, RIM TAKEN FROM CAR

Porch furniture thieves, which made several raids last summer, taking rugs and other fixtures, were active Sunday night, according to the police, who received a call to the vicinity of Ninth and Morgan streets.
The raiders were in a machine, and
directed a spotlight on the porches,
and at one place an attempt was made to take a porch swing but they aroused the household when they stumbled over a chair. One of the chairs at this place was found in the yard.

Last summer the police were kept
busy at nights locating stolen porch
furniture, and the officers are of the opinion that the stealing is getting
an early start for this season.

Dr. J. M. Lee reported to the police Saturday night that a new tire
and rim was stolen from his sedan,
which was parked near his office. The new tire and rim had only been attached to his machine for a half hour, he told the officers when someone took it.

Program For Sacred Concert At Opening Session Tonight

The following program was announced today for the sacred concert by the choir of the Main Street Christian church, at the opening of the Christian church
convention tonight, with the suggestion it be clipped for reference:

Princess of India, by King, Orchestra.
"City of Divine," by Bowillon,
Clarinet solo. Earnest Church
"Looking Unto Jesus," by Jackson, quartet, Offutt, Clark,
Overdorf and Farthing.
"King of the Night," by Barnard orchestra.
"Closer Still With Thee," by Robb, duet, Mrs. Behr and Mrs. Magee.
"Cathedral Chimes," by Brown,
Roy Mitchell and orchestra.
"Respect Ye," Mrs. C. E. Wal-
den.

fort, president of the Indiana organization of Christian church ministers
presided at the meeting of the association this afternoon and the principal address was to be made by George F. Bradford of Des Moines,
Iowa at 2:30 o'clock. Mr. Bradford
was also to lead the conference.

Ministers attending the conference will close the session of the organization with a banquet at St.
Paul's Methodist Episcopal church
at six o'clock. The Rev. Mr. Moor-
man will also preside at this session
and the theme for after-dinner talks
will be "The Ministry". Ellis Cowling
of Greencastle, T. J. Wilson of Shelbyville and L. E. Murray of Indianapolis are scheduled to discuss different phases of the subject.

The basement of the Christian church is occupied with displays of the printing houses devoted to discussing church literature. The displays included copies of the latest books
and current publications.

Elected Head of Falmouth State
Bank, Succeeding F. W. Lightfoot

Fred W. Lightfoot of the Falmouth
neighborhood and formerly of Rushville, who has accepted the management of a serum plant at Thorntown, Indiana, resigned as president and director of the Falmouth State bank
and Jacob Gross was elected in his place.

The election took place last Friday
and D. P. Rea was chosen as vice-president and Alva E. Bilby was continued as cashier. Mr. Rea was elected a director to fill the vacancy caused by Mr. Lightfoot's resignation.

MUST HAVE WARRANTS

Philadelphia, Pa., May 12—In a decision to direct bearing on enforcement of the National Prohibition
laws, the United States Circuit court
here today held that federal prohibition agents must have search
warrants to enter premises to search
and seize intoxicating liquor, declaring that congress in passing the

GET $30,000 IN STAMPS

Alton, Ill., May 12—Thirty thousand dollars in one and two cent
stamps and $18 in cash, was obtained today by yeggs who broke into the postoffice and broke open the safe. The blast was heard but no alarm raised. The robbery was discovered when the postoffice was opened.

FAVOR OUTLAWING WAR

Springfield, Mass., May 12—The Methodist Episcopal church will petition the major political parties to incorporate in their platforms a plan
outlawing war. A resolution calling for the petition was presented today
by the Pennsylvania delegates to the quadrilateral general conference here
and adopted.

Clen Miller is Re-elected Republican
County Chairman Without Any Opposition Appearing

FRED BROWN FOR DEMOCRATS

Republican District Meeting at Newcastle Tuesday and Democrats

The Republican and Democratic county central committees were organized Saturday afternoon when the precinct committeemen elected in the primary last Tuesday met and
elected officers.

Clen Miller was re-elected republican county chairman without any opposition and Fred Brown was chosen by the democratic committee.

The republican county chairmen of the sixth district, who were elected
at similar meetings held throughout the district Saturday afternoon, will meet at Newcastle Tuesday and elect
a district chairman.

The democratic county chairmen
of the sixth district will meet in Rushville next Friday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the court house assembly room to elect their district
chairmen.

Although it was hinted that there might be some opposition to Mr. Miller for republican county chairman,
it did not crop out Saturday and his election was unanimous. This was in accordance with previous predictions
that Mr. Miller had enough precinct committeemen pledged to support him
to insure his election.

Other officers of the county committee were re-elected, including
Frank H. Green, vice-chairman; Russell Titsworth, secretary, and Albert
L. Winslow, treasurer.

Mr. Brown's election as democratic county chairman was also unanimous. Other officers chosen were Mrs.
Wilbur Brown of Walker township,
vice-chairman; Earl Reade of Rush-
ville, secretary, and Ezra Hinkle of Rushville, treasurer.

Charles Hack of Shelbyville, the
present democratic district chairman and candidate for re-election,
was in Rushville today checking up
on the results of the primary election and county committee organization. His re-election as district
chairman is predicted.

The republican district chairmen
will meet in Indianapolis Wednesday
to elect a state chairman. It is believed now that Clyde Walb, the state chairman, will be re-elected, on the basis of the results at the county

VENGEANCE ON CITY WORKERS

Mayor Shank Discharges 20 Who Opposed Him in Primary

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., May 12—Vengeance descended down upon city
employees who failed to work for the nomination of Mayor Shank as the republican candidate for governor in the primary.

Twenty city employees were discharged today and another was reduced in rank for "unfriendly attitude" toward the mayor's race.

At the same time Shank began rewarding the faithful. Upon Will
K. Penrod of Loogootee, his campaign manager, he bestowed a job
paying $175 a month.

BRIDGE AND HIGHWAY CONTRACTS AWARDED

Shanahan Road in Northwestern
Rushville Township to be Built by
Winslow And Hooten

BRIDGE REPAIR CONTRACTS

Contracts for the construction of a new road and two new bridges and
the repair and repainting of four
other bridges were awarded at a special meeting of the county board of commissioners Saturday afternoon.

Northwestern Rushville township,
went to Winslow and Hooten of Greenfield for $23,500. The only other bidder was the firm of Lawrence and Ennis of Arlington, whose bid was $25,824. The engineer's estimate was $27,761.

Wood Bishop was given the contracts for the construction of the Sam Burton bridge in Center township for $200, the construction of the Forbes bridge in Ripley township for $425 and the repair of the Little Blue river bridge in Center township for $549.40.

Woods and Son got the contract
for repainting the Forbes bridge in Ripley township for $171.10 and the Burke Construction company of Newcastle was given the contract for building the Beckner and Glenden-ning bridges for $2,500.

The Henley Construction company
bid on all of the contracts, but was
low on none of them. Franklin E.
White was an unsuccessful bidder on
the Forbes, Beckner and Glendenning
bridges and Lawrence and Ennis on the Beckner and Glendenning bridge-es.

MARTIN ORDERED TO WASHINGTON

Commander of U. S. Round-The-
World Fliers, and Mechanician

MISSING SINCE APRIL 30

Tired From Week of Tramping, Airmen Walk Unheralded Into Village of Port Moller

(By United Press)

Washington, May 12—Major General Patrick, chief of the air service, today ordered Major Frederick
L. Martin, commander of round-the-world fliers, and his mechanic, Alva
L. Harvey, to return to Washington, immediately.

Both will rejoin the army round-
the-world fliers somewhere in Europe or Asia, depending on where they can reach them travelling eastward from the United States.

They will be sent with planes to
some point to be determined later,
from which they will complete the
flight with the fliers.

Word of the finding of Martin
and Harvey at Port Moller, Alaska,
was received by General Mason Patrick, head of the air service, in a message from Unalak, dated Saturday which read:

"Major Martin and Harvey arrived Port Moller six o'clock tonight. Reported in good condition.
Am send out Algonquin one boiler
from Unalak, to their assistance."

Cordova, Alaska, May 12—Preparations to bring Major Frederick
L. Martin and Sergeant Alva Harvey, American round-the-world fliers,
to Dutch Harbor, Unalak, were under way today.

The coast guard cutter Algonquin
was ordered from Dutch Harbor to Port Moller to bring the aviators—
who miraculously escaped death—to Dutch Harbor.

Reports from Port Moller tell of
stirring scenes when Martin and Harvey, tired from a week of tramping
over the frozen Arctic wastes, unshaven and unkempt, walked into
the little village.

Employees of the cannery had aided in the search for Martin and Harvey, but like many others they abandoned hope of the fliers being found alive.

When the two walked into the fishing camp, natives and Americans were astounded. Groups gathered around them and it was half an hour before it was possible to give them the food and rest their condi-

Fayette Circuit Court Rules in 2
Rush County Cases

The Rushville National bank has been awarded judgment in the sum of $527.64 against Edith E. Norris
and Demp C. Norris, in the Fayette circuit court, where the action was heard Friday.

In the same court, Mrs. Renah Leadbetter, formerly a resident of this city, was released from jail
on $500 bond, after being arrested
on a charge of contributing to the neglect of children. Hearing in the case has been set for Wednesday before Judge Himelick.

LEONARD SKAGGS GETS PRISON TERM

Who Disappeared Last June, is

Forged Name of Wilbur Brown to
One For $140 and Name of W. R.
Vansickle to One For $190

Leonard Skaggs, a former resident
of near Milroy, was arraigned this morning in circuit court before
Judge Sparks on a charge of forgery,
and pleaded guilty, receiving a fine of $10 and a sentence of from 2
to 14 years at the state prison.

Skaggs gave his age as 42 years.
He was arrested in Indianapolis and
returned here Saturday, after having been a fugitive from the county since
last summer, when the grand jury
returned two indictments on forgery
charges. One of the indictments was nolled this morning, when he pleaded guilty.

He disappeared from this community last June, after the grand jury had investigated, and officers
were not able to locate him, until
last week, when it was learned that he was staying in Indianapolis.

Skaggs was a farm hand and
lived between Milroy and Moscow.
According to one indictment, he is charged with forging the name of Wilbur Brown of that vicinity to a note as security. The note was taken by the American Security company for $140.

In another indictment he is charged with forging the name of William R. Vansickle, another resident of
that community, and this promissory
note was for $190 and given to Walter E. Smith of this city. The two notes were discovered to be fraudulent, when they became due, according to the charge. The indictment was returned and filed June 25, 1923.

Among the new cases filed today
is a complaint by the Milroy bank
against the Metal Specialties company and others of Milroy, in which
a receiver was appointed some time
ago, and in this complaint the action
is to collect $200 on a note alleged
to be past due.

The International Harvester company is plaintiff in an action filed against Bert T. Osborn, the complaint being on a note, and with the demand for $125.

Several actions have been dismissed from trial in court, and these cases are as follows:

Irvin Hessel against Paul S. Stewart, a complaint on an account.

New Salem State bank against William E. Scott, a complaint on notes.

Minnie Talbot against Mary Marshall, proceedings in ejectment.

Diamond Fertilizer Company against Ihamer McCarty, a complaint on an account.

Sidney L. Anglinbaugh against Cornelius Monks, et al., a complaint
to enforce a trust.

GREATEST SINCE 1870

Harrisburg, Va., May 12—The
greatest flood since 1870 is plunging down the Shenandoah valley river to the gateway at Harper's Ferry today. A twenty hour rainstorm,
which at times assumed the proportion of a cloud burst in the open valley river, has sent a deluge of water into the two branches of this otherwise peaceful river.

Mother's Day Leading Factor in Services, All Pastors Preaching Sermons on Subject

Influence That Mothers Have on Children And Their Homes Are Stressed by Pastors

Mother's Day ranked first in importance in Rushville churches Sunday when all of the pastors preached
sermons appropriate to the occasion
and special attention was given to the observance on the day in the Sunday schools.

Unusually large congregations attended all of the services and at some churches a flower was given to everyone who attended.

The influence that mothers have
on their children and in the home
was stressed in all of the sermons
and likeness of mother love to divine
love was the thought that was brought out in all of the sermons.

Brief reviews of Sunday's services
in some of the churches are as follows:

First Presbyterian

Mother's Day at the First Presbyterian church marked another advance step. The attendance at Sunday school was greater than any previous record of recent years. There was also a large audience at the morning service. Each person was met at the door by a committee
which pinned on them a white flower
in recognition of motherhood. The church also was most beautifully decorated with flowers for the occasion. There was a spirit of worship present throughout the day that was
most helpful to everyone.

The pastor, the Rev. Gibson Wilson, spoke on the subject, "That Wonderful Mother. He used as his text, Proverbs 31:30. "Grace is deceitful and beauty is vain, but a woman that feareth Jehovah, she shall be praised."

He spoke in part: The object of Mother's Day is to honor and uplift
the idea of motherhood. It is not meant to make any distinction as to whether mother is living or whether
day is to be observed by wearing a white flower and the doing of some kind deed as a tribute to mother.

What is the secret of a beautiful
life? "Grace is deceitful and beauty
is vain." The most unpleasant life
may exist beneath outward beauty.
Here is the answer. "The woman that feareth Jehovah she shall be praised." It is character that makes
for beauty and is admired.

LOCAL COMMANDERY TO BE REPRESENTED

Several Going to Fort Wayne Tuesday for Annual Meeting of the Grand Commandery

WILL M. SPARKS ON PROGRAM

Rushville commandery No. 49,
Knights Templar, will be well represented at the annual meeting of the grand commandery, which will be held in Fort Wayne Wednesday and Thursday of this week, and Judge
Will M. Sparks of this city, who is an officer of the Indiana organization, will make the response to the addresses of welcome.

Judge Sparks will also be advanced to the next highest office of
the grand commandery this year,
and under the plan of being advanced each year, will eventually become
the grand commander of Indiana.

Rushville Knights, some of them
accompanied by their wives, will leave here Tuesday morning for Fort Wayne in automobiles so as to arrive in time for a theatre party
for visiting Templars which will be given Tuesday evening.

The Rushville party will probably
be composed of the following: Mr.
and Mrs. Will M. Sparks, and daughter Dorothy, Dr. and Mrs.
Frank Sparks, Mr. and Mrs. B. O.
Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H.
Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wyatt,

From Missouri But He Bought Detective-Diploma

Indianapolis, Ind., May 10—Displaying a diploma from a private detective correspondence school, St. Louis, Mo., a man appeared at the State board of health, inquiring for "any open positions."

"I paid $12 for this diploma," he said to L. J. Rails, special board investigator. "The Indianapolis police headquarters turned me down, so I came here."

The stranger "from Missouri" said he had been taking correspondence lessons in sleuthing since last August. Formerly he was a railroad man.

Have You A Daughter?
Here Is Some Good Advice

Indianapolis, Ind.—"When my daughter was sixteen years of age she contracted a severe cold which came near resulting in her death. But I quit all other remedies and fell back on the medicine that saved me several years before, namely, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, along with the Golden Medical Discovery, and before the fourth bottle was gone she was well. From that time I have been recommending these two medicines."—Mrs. Mary Holden, 48 South State Ave.

committee organizations Saturday, which will insure the election of enough district chairmen tomorrow to make a majority of the state committee friendly to Senator James E. Watson.

There has been a movement on foot by James P. Goodrich and Walter Bossert, former sixth district chairman, to capture the state republican organization, and the prediction was being made today that this element in the party had succeeded in controlling enough county committees in the sixth district to defeat George Elliott of Newcastle, a friend of Senator Watson's, for district chairman. The election of Ed Paul of Wayne county, a Goodrich man, is regarded as probable.

Denies The Report

Indianapolis, Ind., May 12—William H. Harshman, curator of the state museum here, today denied the report that the museum housed a collection of "Cooties."

While a family gazing at relics of the world war, the youngest scampers up to his mother exclaiming:

"They got some cooties, too!"

from generation to generation. Paul found the beauty of faith in the life of Timothy even to the third generation. Possibly you have a heritage of faith that comes down to you for many more than three generations.

Mother's Day will be a day of reminiscence. It will be full of dear memories of olden times.

That memory will be refreshed by a lock of hair, a treasured sentence, a picture on the wall, a familiar home scene, an old family Bible. Some will call to mind the family as it gathered around the family altar.

Ex-president Harrison has expressed the thought of many of us in the telegram he sent when word came that his mother was dying. This is his message as a special train hurried him to her bedside: "Tell mother I'll be there." The message put into song by Charles M. Filmore and sung around the world by Charles M. Alexander has put new courage into many lives.

Home and Mother. These two words belong together. Mother is the central figure of that home life. With a thousand cares she could always add another.

The ideal mother is not found in the mystical St. Agnes but in the Madonna. That ideal mother is made up of the beautiful qualities we have known in the mothers who have lived and served and made the world better through their sons and daughters.

They call our national capitol the home of the nation. But is it? Throughout the land I see old fashioned homes, not palatial buildings, from which have gone sons and daughters, in the ministry, into the duties of their community as Christian men and women, Sunday school superintendents, teachers, elders, business men, determined on upright living and I ask if such is not the home of the nation.

What we need today is not palatial homes luxuriously furnished but homes where religion is held in regard and moulds the life and where the Bible is a guide and comfort.

Here you will find that wonderful mother. She is a partner with God in extending the covenant blessings.

St. Paul's Church

At the morning service at the St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal Church Sunday the pastor the Rev. H. W. Hargett spoke on "The Hand That Rules the World", taking his text from Proverbs 31:1, "His Mother Taught Him." He said in part:

That settled it. If his mother taught him he was worthy to be called king of Jerusalem, and worthy to wear the robe of a royal manhood.

You cannot account for the miracle of the Jewish nation without taking into consideration the place given to the mother in the home. The religious literature of the Jew has no counterpart, his service to the race has no parallel. Taught of God, he early learned that if things go right in the home they go right everywhere. The home is a church within the church, a nation within the nation, a world within the world and within that world, the hand that rocks the cradle is the hand that rules the world.

Mothers are world rulers because of their unshaken faith in their children, their faith has often that dynamic quality that calls forth all latent powers. It was his mother's kiss that made Benjamin West a painter. It was the faith of his mother that called forth from the awkward, ignorant, ragged Abraham Lincoln, a manhood that no difficulties could conquer.

Mothers rule by creating the atmosphere of the home. The virtues they would develop first keep school in their own hearts and then take possession of the hearts of their children.

Mothers rule by the power of unselfish love. The very heart of motherhood is the gift of self for her children. Is it not like unto the sacrificial love of God for the world? Is it not the great need of the world this mother love of God, that finds its fullest expression in Christ Jesus?

pire of mother love. Above the worlds battle fields, by the graves of the dead by the side of the tempted and sorrowing we discern the noble, the tender, the sympathetic face of the Eternal Mother, yearning over her children. The mother spirit is the perpetual need in all human relationships, in business, in politics, in schools, in churches, yes everywhere. Let that spirit become universal and we shall place the kingdom of this world at the meet of our Lord and Christ.

First Baptist

At the morning service yesterday at the First Baptist church, two young ladies were baptised following which the pastor spoke on "The Prisethead of the eBliever."
"The Divine Motherhood" was the subject of the pastor's sermon at the evening service. In substance his message was:

Today we dedicate ourselves anew to our mothers ideals and ambitions for us. Some of us may yet have the privilege of walking with her in the quiet of the day and hearing her wisdom and council. Others of us must take our way alone, down through the garden of memory, there to gather the forget-me-nots and heart ease, still fragrant with her sacrificial love.

But there is a love which even transcends that of motherhood. It is the love of God. Mothers have forgotten and left their offspring, but never God. "When my father and my mother forsake me, then Jehovah will take me up."

That motherhood is a relationship which implies:

First, the closest intimacy. From the very beginning the child is a vital part of the mother's care. Yet still closer is the care and love of the Divine Motherhood. Into most of our lives has come, or will come the time when we must get on without the mother's care. But try as we may, we can never dispense with the Divine care.

Again, the relationship of Motherhood is marked by intense individualism. The mother individualizes her child. She sees more in her child than the rest of us ever dream is there.

And so it is with the child. He wants his mother. No one else will answer the need.

The third mark of a mother's love is its unweariness in care. There is no strength so enduring as hers. No days are too long. No nights are too dark for her. What is the secret of it all? Simply the infilling of the Divine Motherhood, that is all. She draws her strength from the fountain of life.

Fourth, the relationship of motherhood is marked by sacrifice—sacrifice of love. Why such sacrifice and love? Why such care? Love is the answer. That deep abiding love she breathes from the heart of God.

The Church Convention

The eighty-fifth annual convention of the Christian churches of Indiana opened in Rushville today and will continue until Thursday evening.

This is in no sense a Rushville enterprise—the entertaining of the thousand or more visitors who will be within our gates this week. It is one in which every citizen of Rush county has a part and should take justifiable pride.

The responsibility for making Rush county's guests feel at home during their all too brief stay here rests not alone upon the members of the Main Street Christian church but likewise upon the shoulders of all the people of Rushville, all of the members of the sixteen other Christian congregations in the county and the people in their respective communities.

Because Rushville happens to be the county seat of Rush county should be no reason why all of the people of Rush county should not be proud of the fact that Rushville was chosen to act as host for this great gathering of church leaders from all parts of the great state of Indiana.

Since the convention has grown to such proportions, with the growth in membership of the Disciples of Christ, no city as small as Rushville has had the distinction of entertaining the annual meeting. In deciding upon Rushville for the 1924 convention, the delegates at the last convention doubtless took into consideration the high percent of hospitality among the people of Rush county, else they would never have made the selection that they did.

So it is clearly and squarely up to the people of Rush county to carry out their part and come up to the expectations of those who felt that they were not misplacing their confidence when they had enough faith in us here at home to guarantee that we could entertain a convention of the size that the Christian church convention will be.

The response to the appeal for homes where visitors can remain over night was splendid and a fine spirit of co-operation was shown by the other congregations of Rushville as agreeing to feed the people who come here for the convention.

While our guests are here, without being offensive or playing the part of a braggart, we can impress them with the fact that Rush county is a mighty fine place to live and that it has about 29,000 fine people who have chosen to call this home.

Without practicing deceit, we can very easily show our visitors all of

Hunt's Washington Letter

BY HARRY B. HUNT
NEA Service Staff Writer.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—George H. Moses, senior senator from New Hampshire, ex-diplomat, ex-journalist and example of sartorial elegance, just loves to turn a catchy phrase.

Doubtless he found this knack helpful in the social perils of his diplomatic days. As American minister to Greece under President Taft, George is reputed to have pulled some smooth ones! Also, as editor of the Concord Evening Monitor, he was known throughout his state for the brilliancy and sparkle of his journalistic gems.

But it is in politics, Moses believes, that the opportunity for reaping rich rewards from a well-turned line is greatest. A word or phrase that will catch popular fancy, he submits, will do more to win a campaign or put across a candidate than all the logic and argument and hard indigestible facts that can be assembled.

Willing to do his part as a word wizard to lead the Republican party out of the wilderness of the coming campaign, Moses recommends that party managers keep the spotlight focused constantly on "The Calm, Cautious and Courageous Christian Character of Calvin Coolidge."

TAKING a tip from Moses' dream book, Democratic operators have been trying out the names of some of their prospective candidates to see how they would fit in an alliterative or poetical catch-phrase.

Smith—rhymes with myth. Not so good!

McAdoo—Boo! Shoo! Kerchoo! Ralston—Fits with "All's done."

Underwood—Should go good.

Glass—Let him pass!

Cox—In a box!

Davis—Ah! He might save us!

Little solace for the Dems from that list of names, if adaptability for fitting to fancy phrases is to be the deciding factor in the selection. Wherefore, Democrats will decline to fight an alliterative battle with the G. O. P. and will answer the Republican challenge to "Keep Cool With Coolidge" by retorting: "Why put the country in Cold Storage?"

MUCH has been written about the likelihood of a third party, headed by Senator La Follette, but beyond picking the fighting senator from Wisconsin as the probable presidential nominee there has been little speculation as to the supporting personnel in the leadership of such party.

Harriet Stanton Blatch, daughter of Elizabeth Cady Stanton, pioneer suffragist, suggests that women who find difficulty in adjusting themselves to the policies and principals of the two old parties, which still function chiefly from the masculine viewpoint, seize the opportunity to get in on the ground floor in the La Follette party.

To make the party truly progressive, in its recognition of equal suffrage as well as in its attitude toward other fundamentals, she says second place on the ticket might properly be filled by a woman, and suggests Jane Addams as a vice presidential candidate who would draw thousands of women's votes to the La Follette party.

"We women should forget any idea of a 'woman's party,'" says Mrs. Blatch. "The time has gone by for women to talk about getting things for women. That is played out. We must work for the things that are good for all humanity, not just for women alone."

VERMONTERS in Washington, at a "Maple Sugar Party" thrown by Senator Porter Dale, whooped things up for Cal Coolidge, Plymouth, Vt. boy, as a candidate for president. A "sweet" time was had by all.

Rev. Walter J. Cronin, pastor of the Catholic church of this city, was elected State chaplain of the Knights of Columbus in convention in Terre Haute yesterday. Father Cronin has held that position for several years and is exceedingly popular all over the state.

Lieut. Governor Hall was found lying on the floor in his law offices in a precarious condition yesterday, suffering with acute indigestion and having some symptoms of typhoid fever. He was removed to the Windsor hotel, where a trained nurse will attend him.

Rich Reed of this city will assist in the Elks minstrels at Connersville on the night of May 28. He has a fat thinking part and will keep the singers from knocking over one of the chairs on the stage during the first part.

T. M. Greenlee, who has been employed in various capacities at the Maxwell-Briscoe Motor Co., plant for the past few years says the Newcastle Courier, has resigned and will leave with his wife in a few days for Rushville for a visit before proceeding to Ashville, N. C., where they will spend some time with his parents, whom he has not seen for about eight years.

The Misses Nora and Mary Sleeth will leave tomorrow for New York City, where they will remain with their sister, Miss Charlotte Sleeth until fall. It is possible that the young ladies may decide to reside permanently in Gotham.

Rev. Bert DeWitt Beck of College Corner, Ohio, was here yesterday afternoon on account of an operation performed on his brother at the Sexton sanitarium.

Miss Olive Buell will go to Indianapolis Friday to play at a musical recital given at the German House.

William Pentecost and Mrs. Eliza Fry of Acton attended the funeral of Mrs. Nancy B. McMikin yesterday returned to their home yesterday evening.

United States Senator James E. Watson, Postmaster General Harry S. New and Albert J. Beveridge will be the speakers at the Republican State Convention at Indianapolis, May 21 and 22. Mrs. Sylvester-Wells of Kansas City, Mo., a Republican speaker of national reputation, will also address the convention.

Senator Watson will serve as temporary chairman and keynote orator. Emmet F. Branch of Martinsville, Lieutenant Governor of Indiana, will act as permanent chairman of the convention. The secretary of the convention will be Will O. Feudner of Rushville, permanent secretary of the Indiana Republican Editorial Association. Ezra H. Graham of Warsaw, a member of the Legislature, will be the chief Sergeant at Arms, and David H. Jennings of Newcastle, will be Chief Usher. Both Graham and Jennings are former service men.

Indications are that the Republican State Convention this year will be of unusual and general interest. The first day, Wednesday, May 21, will be devoted to Republican speech making, with the thirteen district meetings in the evening. The balloting will take place Thursday, May 22, when delegates to the Republican National Convention will be elected and the full state ticket nominated. The convention will be composed of 1350 delegates elected at the state-wide primary, May 6.

Still Getting Long Rides

(United Press Sports Editor)
New York, May 12—Heavy hitting, which was one of the features of the early weeks of the 1924 major league baseball season might be accepted as proof that it was the lively ball more than the decline in piteasing that changed the modern game.

Introduction of the lively ball, although the magnates stoutly denied any purpose of scattering Babe Ruth's around the two circuits, came shortly after the rule had been passed against the use of any foreign substance on the ball as an aid to the pitchers and they joined to bring about a wild orgy of slugging.

It was an obvious fact that something was wrong and as long as the league presidents persisted in claiming that no changes had been made in the construction of the ball, it had to be accepted that the pitchers had been handicapped too heavily by the rule against the spitter, the shiner, the emery ball and their first cousins of the trick trade.

Umpires were ordered to toss out of play any ball that bore the slightest evidence of tampering and they were so zealous in carrying out the strict letter of the rule that they would throw a new ball in play whenever a ball became soiled or when the hide became scuffed enough for a pitcher to get a hold on it that might make it do tricks.

Hitting, once a feature of the game, became so common that it was in danger of spoiling interest and taking all the science out of the game. To correct this evil the magnates last winter recommended that balls be kept in play longer so that pitchers would not be forced to work almost entirely with new balls.

Results were almost immediately apparent at the start of the season.

Pitchers worked more effectively and it was noticeable that the volume of hitting had been decreased.

At the same time, however, it was shown when a heavy swinger took hold he got as much of a drive as he did in the past three seasons. While pitchers were able to hold their opposition to fewer hits, they were unable to keep the ball from taking it old ride when it got in front of a heavy swinging club.

In the first two weeks of the major league pennant races there were more home runs hit than there were during the corresponding period of the 1923 season.

The total home runs hit in both leagues during the first two weeks of the 1924 season was 75, against 67 hit in the same period the year previous. This year showed a decrease of four in the National League and an increase of twelve in the American League.

Some critics were of the opinion that the better form of the pitchers at the start of the pennant races this season was the result of better physical condition. It was pointed out that practically every manager in the major leagues was, more or less, decided about his infield and his outfield when he took his squad south.

KEEPING ONE EYE ON THE SCOREBOARD

Three errors by Jackson kept Gairin in trouble and the Giants lost the second game of the western trip, the Cards winning 3 to 2.

The Athletics lost their eleventh straight game, the Indians copping 8 to 5.

Carlson was better in the pinches than Laque and the Phils beat the Reds 2 to 0.

GIANTS SLIPPING BADLY

(U. P. Staff Correspondent)
New York, May 12—International games in the Major leagues which will feature the pennant races for almost a month, are bearing out the contention that the two champion clubs have their most serious opposition in the west. The New York Giants, playing championship ball, rode wildly over the weaker eastern club and accumulated what looked like a commanding lead, but they slipped badly when they were given their first real challenge and they now have a lead of only a half game over the dangerous Cincinnati Reds.

Against the Braves, Robins and Phils, the Giant pitching staff looked as if it had obtained the very necessary help that was imperative to pull McGraw's team through what is generally accepted as a very hard battle, but the heavy hitting St. Louis Cardinals showed that the new pitchers picked up by the Giants were not the sensations that New York had believed.

The Giants hit their first slump against the poor Philadelphia Phils when they blew a pair of games just before they hit the road on their first trip of the season and they dropped two more against the Cards.

The Cards are by record the weakest club in the west and the Reds, the Cubs and the Pirates should give the champions much more trouble than they are now having.

The losing streak of the Philadelphia Athletics has been one of the unusual features of the American League race. Connie Mack's team has dropped eleven games in a row and looks to be after a record. The Athletics were regarded before the season opened as one of the promising clubs in the league.

Terrible weather that has caused numerous postponements is placing a handicap on the New York Yanks that may prove heavy when Miller Huggins has to get into the double-headers.

RALEIGH WINS GAME GOING 13 INNINGS

Defeats Newcastle Red Sox. Fast Colored Team, by Score of 5 to 4 Sunday

SCORE IS TIED IN SEVENTH

The Raleigh baseball club and the Newcastle Red Sox, a fast colored team, went 13 innings in a well played game Sunday at Raleigh, in which Raleigh won out 5 to 4.

The two teams evened the score in the seventh inning, and it was not until the 13th that it was broken. The winning run was scored with one out.

Raleigh started the game with two scores in the first inning, and again scored two more in the fourth. The Newcastle team made three of the runs back in the sixth, and tied the score 4 to 4 in the seventh. Johnson for the visitors pitched a good game, while Gray and Craig did real work for the home team. Johnson fanned 16 during the 13 innings. Gray struck out 8 in 6 innings and Craig fanned 16 in 7 innings. Raleigh wants games with Arlington and the Rushville club. Frank Craig, RFD 1, Mays, is the manager. Score by innings:

ion demanded.

Martin told the handful of English speaking residents the story of how, shortly after noon on April 30, his plane had crashed into a mountainside; how he and Harvey had picked themselves from the wreckage, salvaged their emergency rations and a few useful instruments and decided to walk across the snow to Port Moller—the nearest settlement.

Their course in the tramp was set by means of charts of the country carried in their flight and small compass salvaged from the wreck of the plane.

They finally reached a trapper's cabin which had been recently used and which not only offered them a chance to help themselves to food, but gave evidence that they were on a trail which would lead them out of the wilderness and to civilization.

NO GAME DUE TO WET GROUNDS

Rushville Club will Officially Open Season Next Sunday

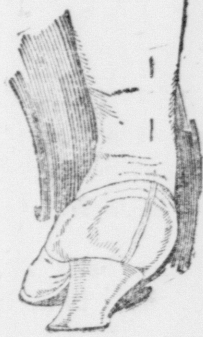

The baseball game scheduled with Arlington for Sunday afternoon was called off on account of the muddy condition of the grounds, and a game with this club will be arranged later.

Next Sunday will officially open the season, and the Real Silk club of Indianapolis will be the attraction. On account of the opening game, the club boosters are selling tickets at $1 and expect to realize $500 in this way to place the club on a sound basis for the start. The tickets are being sold in advance this week. The visiting team from Indianapolis won the title among semipro in that city last fall.

Summer Fur

The flattering qualities of fur cannot be withstood by many women and even their summer coats must be bordered with it. Here is a charming French coat that is trimmed with maribou which has all the fluffiness of fur without its warmth or weight. This is a popular length in coats.

LATEST FADS IN THE SPRING STYLE

By HEDDA HOYT (Written for United Press)

New York, May 12—The vogue among the younger set for plaids brings out the plaid sports dress with the bright red patent leather belt, which is worn at a low waist-line, large plaid flannels, worsteds and gingham, made in simple, straight-lined frocks, are among the smartest of sports attire.

Gold and silver lace will play a prominent part in the Summer wardrobe this year. Gold lace is especially lovely on the golden or tawny-haired person, while silver is best suited to the brunette. While gold and silver lace is usually worn over a foundation of either gold or silver metal cloth, the Spring tendency is towards the underlip of colored chiffon. Silver lace posed over Nile green chiffon is lovely, while gold over amber or scarlet is quite the rage.

Many of the most recent lace frocks are so simply made that the home dressmaker could easily copy them. Their bodies are all cut with the rounded neckline and low waist-line, and are sleeveless, while the skirts are quite full and often show the extended hip-line, being feather-boned at the hips.

The wearing of artificial flowers is fast becoming a fad in America. Boutonnieres of tiny mixed flowers are worn with the tailored suits, while orchids, gardenias, lotus buds and larger flowers are worn pinned to the fur collar of the long wrap or coat. At the popular dancing rendezvous one sees young girls with orchids placed over their ears. One very dark haired young miss wore yellow daisies at one side of her bobbed hair. Wearing one huge flower of velvet or silk on one shoulder or at the edge of the batteau neck is popular. Bright colored flowers are also worn on scarfs of tulle or chiffon. Corsages of all sorts will be worn this Summer.

Gold and silver beads are the latest Parisian jewelry novelty. These come in choker necklaces made of beads the size of hazelnuts and in longer lengths of beaded beads. Long pendant earrings with bead drops are worn with them. Huge pearls and gemstone bead chokers are also worn with the tailored, as the choker seems to be the favorite necklace for the tailored mode.

From London comes a novel manner of wearing the pearl necklace. The pearls are stretched from shoulder to shoulder in batteau effect and are held on the shoulders with barpins.

LAST WEEK'S MEETINGS The Komentri Club held its annual guest day meeting in the Elks Club parlors, Monday afternoon, May 5. After a welcome by the president, Mrs. Fay Sparks, Mrs. Marie Offatt and Mrs. Clara Allen gave a lecture on J. M. Barrie.

During the intermission, Miss Florence Giesler sang. For the last half of the programme Mrs. Allen gave a recital of Barrie's play, Rosalind, which was highly praised by the guests. Refreshments were served and a social hour was enjoyed in the upstairs rooms.

The Women's Literary Circle of Carthage met with Mrs. W. P. Henly. Mrs. Rowland Hill read a paper on, Australian Cities.

Miss Hazel Hill reviewed a current Atlantic Monthly.

The Tuesday Study Club of Washington township met with Mrs. Emma Sweet. The following programme was given: Collect.

Responses, Original poems on Mother Paper, Genoa, Cora Myer. Music, Ruth Hill. Paper, Indian Tribes, Cora Eakins. Reports from the County and District Conventions.

Both the Advance Literary Club and the Delphian Society met on Friday. These meetings were reported in Saturday's Republican.

CLUB CALENDAR FOR WEEK The Monday Circle, with Mrs. Harry Kramer.

The meeting of the Fortnightly Study Club postponed on account of the church convention.

Wednesday The Sunshine Club of Washington township, hostess, Mrs. Berry Rush.

Thursday Ripley Country Club, hostess, Mrs. Douglas Cooper.

Now that the district conventions are over and club year books are drawing to a close, interest centers in the biennial convention at Los Angeles June 2 to 13.

Only a few will be fortunate enough to be able to attend but all club women are concerned in the policies formed by the mother federation.

It is a far cry from the first biennial convention held in Chicago in 1892, at which time there were 297 members from 185 clubs, representing 29 states. At that time the ladies were afraid to admit reporters, afraid to see their names in print. They had no civic intentions but were meeting purely for cultural improvement. The papers commenting, laid stress on the fact that it was the first gathering of women with no special reform in view.

At the last Biennial held at Chattanooga, N. Y., there were 12,000 clubs represented by 3,000 women coming from all states in the U. S., Alaska, Porto Rico, Hawaii and 17 foreign countries.

It is expected that the Los Angeles convention will entertain the largest crowd ever attending a biennial. There are now 25 foreign clubs federated and their representatives will appear on the programme on the "Foreign Relations" day.

Not only in size but in intention has the Federation outgrown its original simplicity. Calls are constantly coming in for aid in national movements. The president at Chattanooga received 168 such requests for presentation to the Federation.

The Federation is remaining true to its original intention of having no special aim but to discuss all phases of public interest without bias or partisanship.

"No prosperity without intelligent opinions" is the slogan and the Federation has been an important factor in creating and spreading public opinion in regard to national issues.

The club women of California financing this convention without the aid of men. Every club woman in the state will contribute 50c as her part of the entertainment fund. There are 70,000 women in the California Federation. They are noted for entertaining in generous style so 13 days of enjoyment is in store for all who attend this convention.

Columbus Soprano Makes Fine Impression at Concert

Mrs. William Forrest Bassett, soprano of Columbus, Ind., who gave a concert at the Main Street Christian church last Friday evening in observance of National Music Week, made quite an impression with the musicians in this city with her lovely soprano voice. Mrs. Bassett is a talented soloist and with her groups of solos, she rendered a splendid program. She has a very clear, sweet voice and sang with such ease that her audience were very much delighted with her numbers.

She was ably accompanied on the piano by Miss Jessie Kithen, also of Columbus, but formerly a resident of this city. Miss Kithen is also a talented musician, and has played in a number of recitals throughout the state.

The Columbus musicians were assisted in their program by Mrs. Frances Lyons Moore, a pianist of this city, who rendered one selection, and Miss Mary Louise Wyatt, violinist, who played a group of violin numbers. Both of the local musicians were well received by the audience.

The concert was given in observance of the special week and was sponsored by the Music Study Club of this city, members of which feel they were well repaid for their efforts.

Acute Disease vs Chronicity

Chiropractic Health Talk No. 65 By H. V. McCully, D. C., Ph. C.

QUESTION—"Is Chiropractic as effective in acute conditions as it is in chronic?" ANSWER—"Yes, more so. All chronic conditions had to start in the acute form. In the acute stage the condition is easier corrected because the abnormal changes have not taken place in the body to such a degree as they have in the chronic stage.

Where we might correct an acute condition with two, three or four adjustments, if allowed to run into the chronic form, it might take two or three weeks' adjustments to get the same results.

It is always advisable to take Chiropractic adjustments while the condition is acute, prolonged suffering as well as time and money can be saved."

Chronic Case Gets Relief Through Our Chiropractic Adjustments

lower part of my back. I had to get up from three to six times a night with my kidneys and had not been able to breathe through the right side of my nose for years, my skin was dry and scaly, I had tried several physicians and all kinds of drugs, but without results.

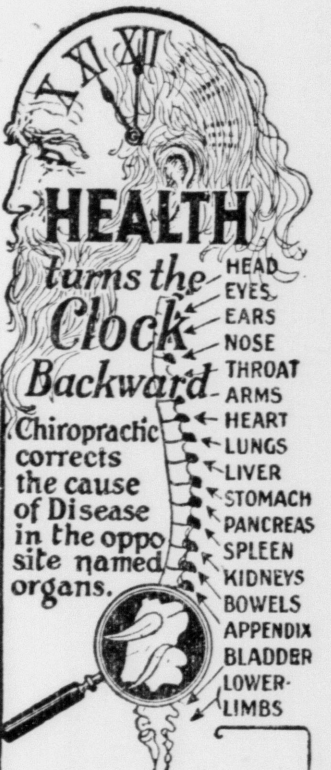

I finally decided to consult Drs. McCully and McCully, Chiropractors. Although I was somewhat skeptical about Chiropractic, I started in, and I am glad to say that since my ninth adjustment I have not had to get up during the night and after the twelfth adjustment my nasal trouble cleared up completely and I can now breathe through both nostrils. My skin is normal and I have no cold. I am also free from rheumatism and pain in back. I feel like a new man.

There were no drugs, diet, etc., used—just straight Chiropractic adjustments. I do sincerely recommend Dr. McCully's health method to anyone who is not enjoying good health.

Mrs. Taylor's Sunday school class of the St. Paul's M. E. church will be entertained tonight at the home of Miss Laurette Abercrombie with Miss Lucile Brown, assisting hostess. A good attendance is desired.

Miss Lydia Hurst entertained with a prettily appointed dinner party Sunday at high noon at her home west of the city. Her guests included Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morris of Anderson, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Jones and daughter Ellen Louise, Mrs. Ella Bowen, Miss Laverne Conway, Miss Nellie Jones, Earl Conway, Herman Hurst and Frank Conway.

There will be an important business meeting of the Psi Iota Xi sorority Tuesday night at 7:45 at the home of Miss Helen Monjar, and all of the members are requested to attend.

The Misses Mary and Marguerite McCoy entertained with a dinner party Sunday at their home northwest of the city. Their guests included the Misses Nellie and Katherine Keating, Salome Schlichte and Mary Euler, of Indianapolis.

Lorline Council, No. 296, D. of P., will meet in the regular session Thursday evening at eight o'clock at the Red men hall in West First street. A large attendance of the members is desired as there will be nomination of officers and degree work will be conferred upon several candidates. A social will also be held at the close of the meeting and the members are asked to bring sandwiches, their own silverware and cups.

The relatives of James B. Rees gathered at his home last Sunday and pleasantly surprised him with a pitch-in dinner, it being his sixty-fourth birthday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Rees of Indianapolis, Mr. and Mrs. Omer Bell and family of Arlington, Mr. and Mrs. Alf Sherwood and family, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rees, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Rees and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Rees and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Rees and family, Mr. and Mrs. Loys Rees and family, Mr. and Mrs. Albert McConnell and family, Mr. and Mrs. Parker Willy and family, Mr. and Mrs. Don Kiser and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Kiser.

A TALK WITH A RUSHVILLE, MAN

Mr. Younger Tells Something of Interest to Rushville Folks

There's nothing more convincing than the statement of someone you know and have confidence in. That's why this talk with Mr. Younger of W. Tenth street, should be mighty helpful here in Rushville.

A. M. Younger, retired farmer, 828 W. Tenth St., says: "At times my back got weak and lame and there was a dull ache through the small part. The kidney secretions passed too frequently, causing me to get up at night. Doan's Pills, from Johnson & Co.'s Drug Store, have never failed to relieve me."

OVER FIVE YEARS LATER, Mr. Younger added: "I think Doan's Pills are the best medicine for kidney trouble."

Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Pills—the same that Mr. Younger had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

MARRIAGE LICENSE

A marriage license was issued today to Henry Lee, a mechanic of Carthage and Miss Marie Adams, also of Carthage. Both were colored people, and were married by Justice Stech at his office in the court house. Another license has been issued to William Pickrell, a farmer of this county and Vida Frow, a school teacher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Frow of Homer.

LEGION MEETS TUESDAY

The regular meeting of Rush post No. 150 of the American Legion will be held at the Legion club rooms Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

SATISFACTORY IMPROVEMENT

Miss Jean McClanahan, of this city who was operated on last Thursday at Greensburg, is making very satisfactory improvement.

Sessions Formally Open

MINISTERS HOLD MEETING

Annual Gathering of Christian Ministerial Association This Afternoon Precedes Convention

State Ministerial Banquet Tonight
Before Opening Program When
Guests Will Be Welcomed

Preliminary to the formal opening
tonight of the eighty-fifth annual
convention of the Christian churches
of Indiana, which will be attended by
visitors, the annual session of the Indiana Ministerial association of the church was in progress this afternoon at the Main Street Christian church, holding a conference on
"Stewardship."

Forty visitors had registered in the
registration room, in the basement
of the church, at one o'clock this afternoon, and people coming for the
convention were arriving by the
scores on every train, interurban car
and by automobile, so that it was
hundred or more convention guests
in the city by night.

front of the church ready to take
visitors to the homes to which they
had been assigned, as fast as they arrived and registered. Many automobiles bore signs inviting convention visitors to ask for a ride to any
part of the city they wished to go.

and delegates, whom it was known
would attend, were assigned to
homes in advance, and as fast as
they arrived, they were given cards
showing where they were to stay.
Mrs. Martha Grindle was in charge
of the assignment of convention visitors and worked out this system to avoid delays.

The convention sermon, the first
the exception of the welcoming ad-
the Rev. W. E. Moore of Marion on
the subject, "Interpreting Religion."

This will be preceded by devotion-
al exercises conducted by H. H. Halley of Chicago, Bible reader, who
conducted a two weeks meeting here
during the past winter, and by addresses of welcome by the Rev. L.
E. Brown, pastor of the Rushville
church, on behalf of the local congregation, and by Robert E. Mans-
field, on behalf of the citizens of the
a sacred concert by the choir of the Rushville church.

Program for Sacred Concert At Opening Session Tonight

The following program was
concert by the choir of the Main Street Christian church, at the opening of the Christian church
convention tonight, with the
suggestion it be clipped for reference:

chestra.
Clarinet solo. Earnest Church.
"Looking Unto Jesus," by Jack-
son, quartet, Offutt, Clark,
Overdorf and Farthing.
"King of the Night," by Barnard, orchestra.
Roll, duet, Mrs. Beher and Mrs. Magee.
"Cathedral Chimes," by Brown,
Roy Mitchell and orchestra.
"Respect Ye," Mrs. C. E. Wal-
den.

fort, president of the Indiana organization of Christian church ministers
presided at the meeting of the association this afternoon and the principal address was to be made by
George F. Bradford of Des Moines,
Iowa at 2:30 o'clock. Mr. Bradford
was also to lead the conference.

Ministers attending the conference will close the session of the organization with a banquet at St.
Paul's Methodist Episcopal church
at six o'clock. The Rev. Mr. Moor-
man will also preside at this session
will be "The Ministry." Ellis Cowling
of Greencastle, T. J. Wilson of Shelbyville and L. E. Murray of Indianapolis are scheduled to discuss different phases of the subject.

church is occupied with displays of the printing houses devoted to issuing church literature. The displays
and current publications.

Bank, Succeeding F. W. Lightfoot

Fred W. Lightfoot of the Falmouth
neighborhood and formerly of Rush-
ville, who has accepted the management of a serum plant at Thorntown,
Indiana, resigned as president and
director of the Falmouth State bank
place.

and D. P. Rea was chosen as vice-president and Alva E. Bilby was continued as cashier. Mr. Rea was elected a director to fill the vacancy caused by Mr. Lightfoot's resignation.

MUST HAVE WARRANTS

Philadelphia, Pa., May 12—In a
decision to direct bearing on enforcement of the National Prohibition
laws, the United States Circuit court
here today held that federal prohibition agents must have search
and seize intoxicating liquor, de-
claring that congress in passing the

Alton, Ill., May 12—Thirty thousand dollars in one and two cent
stamps and $18 in cash, was obtained today by yeggs who broke into the postoffice and broke open the safe.
The blast was heard but no alarm raised. The robbery was discovered when the postoffice was opened.

Springfield, Mass., May 12—The Methodist Episcopal church will petition the major political parties to
incorporate in their platforms a plan
outlawing war. A resolution calling
for the petition was presented today
by the Pennsylvania delegates to the quadrannual general conference here
and adopted.

LOCAL ELECTIONS GO OFF SMOOTHLY

County Chairman Without Any

Republican District Meeting at New-

The Republican and Democratic
county central committees were organized Saturday afternoon when
the precinct committeemen elected in
the primary last Tuesday met and
elected officers.

Clen Miller was re-elected republican county chairman without any
chosen by the democratic committee.

The republican county chairmen of
the sixth district, who were elected
at similar meetings held throughout
the district Saturday afternoon, will meet at Newcastle Tuesday and elect
a district chairman.

The democratic county chairmen
of the sixth district will meet in Rushville next Friday afternoon at
1:30 o'clock at the court house assembly room to elect their district
chairmen.

Although it was hinted that there might be some opposition to Mr. Miller for republican county chairman,
it did not crop out Saturday and his election was unanimous. This was in accordance with previous predictions
that Mr. Miller had enough precinct
committeemen pledged to support him
to insure his election.

Other officers of the county committee were re-elected, including
Frank H. Green, vice-chairman; Rus-
L. Winslow, treasurer.

Mr. Brown's election as democratic
county chairman was also unanimous. Other officers chosen were Mrs.
Wilbur Brown of Walker township,
vice-chairman; Earl Reade of Rush-
ville, secretary, and Ezra Hinkle of Rushville, treasurer.

Charles Hack of Shelbyville, the
present democratic district chair-
man and candidate for re-election,
was in Rushville today checking up
on the results of the primary election and county committee organization. His re-election as district
chairman is predicted.

The republican district chairmen
will meet in Indianapolis Wednesday
to elect a state chairman. It is believed now that Clyde Walb, the

VENGEANCE ON CITY WORKERS Mayor Shank Discharges 20 Who Opposed Him in Primary

(By United Press)
Indianapolis, Ind., May 12—Ven-
geance descended down upon city
employees who failed to work for the
nomination of Mayor Shank as the republican candidate for governor in the primary.

Twenty city employees were dis-
charged today and another was reduced in rank for "unfriendly attitude" toward the mayor's race.

At the same time Shank began
rewarding the faithful. Upon Will
K. Penrod of Loogootee, his cam-
paying $175 a month.

Shanahan Road in Northwestern
Rushville Township to be Built by

Contracts for the construction of a new road and two new bridges and
the repair and repainting of four
other bridges were awarded at a special meeting of the county board of commissioners Saturday afternoon.

Northwestern Rushville township,
went to Winslow and Hooten of Greenfield for $23,500. The only other bidder was the firm of Lawrence and Ennis of Arlington, whose bid was
$25,824. The engineer's estimate was $27,761.

Wood Bishop was given the contracts for the construction of the
Sam Burton bridge in Center township for $200, the construction of the
Forbes bridge in Ripley township for $425 and the repair of the Little Blue
river bridge in Center township for $549.40.

Woods and Son got the contract
for repainting the Forbes bridge in Ripley township for $171.10 and the
Burke Construction company of Newcastle was given the contract for
building the Beckner and Glenden-
ning bridges for $2,500.

The Henley Construction company
bid on all of the contracts, but was
low on none of them. Franklin E.
the Forbes, Beckner and Glendenning
bridges; and Lawrence and Ennis, on

Commander of U. S. Round-The-
World Fliers, and Mechanician

MISSING SINCE APRIL 30

Tired From Week of Tramping, Air-
men Walk Unheralded Into Village of Port Moller

(By United Press)
Washington, May 12—Major General Patrick, chief of the air service, today ordered Major Frederick
L. Martin, commander of round-the-
world fliers, and his mechanic, Alva
L. Harvey, to return to Washington, immediately.

Both will rejoin the army round-
the-world fliers, somewhere in Europe or Asia, depending on where
they can reach them travelling east-
ward from the United States.

They will be sent with planes to
some point to be determined later,
from which they will complete the
flight with the fliers.

Word of the finding of Martin
and Harvey at Port Moller, Alaska,
was received by General Mason Patrick, head of the air service, in a message from Unalaska, dated Saturday which read:

"Major Martin and Harvey arrived Port Moller six o'clock tonight. Reported in good condition.
Am send out Algonquin one boiler
from Unalaska, to their assistance."

Cordova, Alaska, May 12—Pre-
parations to bring Major Frederick
L. Martin and Sergeant Alva Har-
to Dutch Harbor, Unalaska, were under way today.

The coast guard cutter Algonquin
was ordered from Dutch Harbor to
Dutch Harbor.

Reports from Port Moller tell of
stirring scenes when Martin and Harvey, tired from a week of tramping
over the frozen Arctic wastes, un-
shaven and unkempt, walked into
the little village.

Employees of the cannery had aided in the search for Martin and Harvey, but like many others they
abandoned "hope of the fliers being
found alive."

When the two walked into the fishing camp, natives and Americans
were astounded. Groups gathered around them and it was half an hour before it was possible to give

been awarded judgment in the sum
of $527.64 against Edith E. Norris
and Demp C. Norris, in the Fayette
circuit court, where the action was heard Friday.

In the same court, Mrs. Renah Leadbetter, formerly a resident of
this city, was released from jail
on $500 bond, after being arrested
on a charge of contributing to the
neglect of children. Hearing in the case has been set for Wednesday before Judge Himelick.

LEONARD SKAGGS GETS PRISON TERM

Who Disappeared Last June, is

Forged Name of Wilbur Brown to
Vansickle to One For $190

Leonard Skaggs, a former resident
of near Milroy, was arraigned this
morning in circuit court before
Judge Sparks on a charge of forgery,
and pleaded guilty, receiving a
fine of $10 and a sentence of from 2
to 14 years at the state prison.

Skaggs gave his age as 42 years.
He was arrested in Indianapolis and
returned here Saturday, after having
been a fugitive from the county since
last summer, when the grand jury
returned two indictments on forgery
charges. One of the indictments was nolled this morning, when he pleaded guilty.

He disappeared from this community last June, after the grand
jury had investigated, and officers
were not able to locate him, until
last week, when it was learned that he was staying in Indianapolis.

Skaggs was a farm hand and
lived between Milroy and Moscow.
According to one indictment, he is charged with forging the name of Wilbur Brown of that vicinity to a note as security. The note was taken by the American Security company for $140.

In another indictment he is charged with forging the name of William
R. Vansickle, another resident of
that community, and this promissory
note was for $190 and given to Walter E. Smith of this city. The two
notes were discovered to be fraudu-
lent, when they became due, according to the charge. The indictment
was returned and filed June 25, 1923.

Among the new cases filed today
is a complaint by the Milroy bank
against the Metal Specialties company and others of Milroy, in which
a receiver was appointed some time
ago, and in this complaint the action
is to collect $200 on a note alleged
to be past due.

The International Harvester company is plaintiff in an action filed
against Bert T. Osborn, the complaint being on a note, and with the demand for $125.

Several actions have been dismissed from trial in court, and these
cases are as follows:

Irvin Hessel against Paul S. Ste-

New Salem State bank against William E. Scott, a complaint on notes.

Minnie Talbot against Mary Marshall, proceedings in ejectment.

Diamond Fertilizer Company against Ihamer McCarty, a complaint on an account.

Sidney L. Aughinbaugh against Cornelius Monks, et al., a complaint

Harrisburg, Va., May 12—The
greatest flood since 1870 is plunging down the Shenandoah valley river to the gateway at Harper's ferry today. A twenty hour rainstorm,
which at times assumed the proportion of a cloud burst in the open valley river, has sent a deluge of water into the two branches of this otherwise peaceful river.

Mother's Day Leading Factor in Services, All Pastors Preaching Sermons on Subject

Stressed by Pastors

Mother's Day ranked first in importance in Rushville churches Sunday when all of the pastors preached
sermons appropriate to the occasion
and special attention was given to
the observance on the day in the Sunday schools.

Unusually large congregations attended all of the services and at some
churches a flower was given to everyone who attended.

The influence that mothers have
on their children and in the home
was stressed in all of the sermons
and likeness of mother love to divine
love was the thought that was
brought out in all of the sermons.

Brief reviews of Sunday's services
in some of the churches are as follows:

Mother's Day at the First Presbyterian church marked another advance step. The attendance at Sunday school was greater than any previous record of recent years. There
was also a large audience at the morning service. Each person was
met at the door by a committee
which pinned on them a white flower
in recognition of motherhood. The
church also was most beautifully
decorated with flowers for the occasion. There was a spirit of worship
present throughout the day that was

The pastor, the Rev. Gibson Wilson, spoke on the subject, "That Wonderful Mother." He used as his text, Proverbs 31:30. "Grace is deceitful and beauty is vain, but a
woman that feareth Jehovah, she
shall be praised."

He spoke in part: The object of Mother's Day is to honor and uplift
the idea of motherhood. It is not meant to make any distinction as to whether mother is living or whether
day is to be observed by wearing a
white flower and the doing of some
kind deed as a tribute to mother.

What is the secret of a beautiful
life? "Grace is deceitful and beauty
is vain." The most unpleasant life
may exist beneath outward beauty.
Here is the answer: "The woman that
feareth Jehovah she shall be praised." It is character that makes
for beauty and is admired.

Several Going to Fort Wayne Tues-
day for Annual Meeting of the Grand Commandery

WILL M. SPARKS ON PROGRAM

Rushville commandery No. 49,
Knights Templar, will be well represented at the annual meeting of the grand commandery, which will be held in Fort Wayne Wednesday and Thursday of this week, and Judge
Will M. Sparks of this city, who is an officer of the Indiana organiza-
addresses of welcome.

Judge Sparks will also be advanced to the next highest office of
the grand commandery this year,
and under the plan of being ad-
the grand commander of Indiana.

Rushville Knights, some of them
accompanied by their wives, will
leave here Tuesday morning for Fort Wayne in automobiles so as to
arrive in time for a theatre party
for visiting Templars which will be given Tuesday evening.

The Rushville party will probably
be composed of the following: Mr.
and Mrs. Will M. Sparks, and
daughter Dorothy, Dr. and Mrs.
Frank Sparks, Mr. and Mrs. B. O.
Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H.
Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wyatt,

and Other Fixtures Being Stolen

TIRE, RIM TAKEN FROM CAR

Porch furniture thieves, which
made several raids last summer, taking rugs and other fixtures, were active Sunday night, according to the
police, who received a call to the vicinity of Ninth and Morgan streets.
The raiders were in a machine, and
directed a spotlight on the porches,
and at one place an attempt was
made to take a porch swing but they
aroused the household when they
stumbled over a chair. One of the chairs at this place was found in the yard.

Last summer the police were kept
busy at nights locating stolen porch
furniture, and the officers are of the opinion that the stealing is getting
an early start for this season.

Dr. J. M. Lee reported to the police Saturday night that a new tire
and rim was stolen from his sedan,
which was parked near his office. The
new tire and rim had only been attached to his machine for a half hour, he told the officers when someone took it.

From Missouri But He Bought Detective Diploma

Indianapolis, Ind., May 10—Dis-playing a diploma from a private detective correspondence school, St. Louis, Mo., a man appeared at the State board of health, inquiring for "any open positions."

"I paid $12 for this diploma," he said to L. J. Rails, special board investigator. "The Indianapolis police headquarters turned me down, so I came here."

ACCEPTS WARSAW CALL

Warsaw, Ind., May 10—The Rev. Harry A. Bolle, Chicago, has accepted a call to the pastorate of the First Baptist church of Warsaw. He is a graduate of the Northern Baptist Theological Seminary. He will take up his duties here in June.

committee organizations Saturday, which will insure the election of enough district chairmen tomorrow to make a majority of the state committee friendly to Senator James E. Watson.

There has been a movement on foot by James P. Goodrich and Walter Bossert, former sixth district chairman, to capture the state republican organization, and the prediction was being made today that this element in the party had succeeded in controlling enough county committees in the sixth district to defeat George Elliott of Newcastle, a friend of Senator Watson's, for district chairman. The election of Ed Paul of Wayne county, a Goodrich man, is regarded as probable.

Denies The Report

Indianapolis, Ind., May 12—William H. Harshman, curator of the state museum here, today denied the report that the museum housed a collection of “Cooties.”

While a family gazing at relics of the world war, the youngest scampereed up to his mother exclaiming:

RANKS FIRST IN CHURCHES SUNDAY

from generation to generation. Paul found the beauty of faith in the life of Timothy even to the third generation. Possibly you have a heritage of faith that comes down to you for many more than three generations.

Mother's Day will be a day of reminiscence. It will be full of dear memories of olden times.

That memory will be refreshed by a lock of hair, a treasured sentence, a picture on the wall, a familiar home scene, an old family Bible. Some will call to mind the family as it gathered around the family altar.

At the morning service yesterday at the First Baptist church, two young ladies were baptised following which the pastor spoke on “The Priesthood of the Believer.”

“The Divine Motherhood” was the subject of the pastor's sermon at the evening service. In substance his message was:

Today we dedicate ourselves anew to our mothers ideals and ambitions for us. Some of us may yet have the privilege of walking with her in the quiet of the day and hearing her wisdom and council. Others of us must take our way alone, down through the garden of memory, there to gather the forgotten notes and heart ease, still fragrant with her sacrificial love.

Home and Mother

Home and Mother. These two words belong together. Mother is the central figure of that home life. With a thousand cares she could always add another.

The ideal mother is not found in the mystical St. Agnes but in the Madonna. That ideal mother is made up of the beautiful qualities we have known in the mothers who have lived and served and made the world better through their sons and daughters.

They call our national capitol the home of the nation. But is it? Throughout the land I see old fashioned homes, not palatial buildings, from which have gone sons and daughters, in the ministry, into the duties of their community as Christian men and women, Sunday school superintendents, teachers, elders, business men, determined on upright living and I ask if such is not the home of the nation.

What we need today is not palatial homes luxuriously furnished but homes where religion is held in regard and moulds the life and where the Bible is a guide and comfort.

Here you will find that wonderful mother. She is a partner with God in extending the covenant blessings.

St. Paul's Church

At the morning service at the St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal Church Sunday the pastor the Rev. H. W. Hargett spoke on “The Hand That Rules the World”, taking his text from Proverbs 31:1, “His Mother Taught Him.” He said in part:

That settled it. If his mother taught him he was worthy to be called king of Jerusalem, and worthy to wear the robe of a royal manhood.

You cannot account for the miracle of the Jewish nation without taking into consideration the place given to the mother in the home. The religious literature of the Jew has no counterpart, his service to the race has no parallel. Taught of God, he early learned that if things go right in the home they go right everywhere. The home is a church within the church, a nation within the nation, a world within the world and within that world, the hand that rocks the cradle is the hand that rules the world.

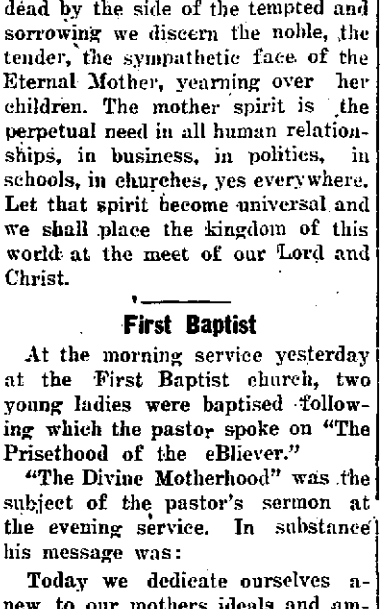

Mothers are world rulers because of their unshaken faith in their children, their faith has often that dynamic quality that calls forth all latent powers. It was his mother's kiss that made Benjamin West a painter. It was the faith of his mother that called forth from the awkward, ignorant, ragged Abraham Lincoln, a manhood that no difficulties could conquer.

Mothers rule by creating the atmosphere of the home. The virtues they would develop first keep school in their own hearts and then take possession of the hearts of their children.

Mothers rule by the power of unselfish love. The very heart of motherhood is the gift of self for her children. Is it not like unto the sacrificial love of God for the world? Is it not the great need of the world this mother loves of God, that finds its fullest expression in Christ Jesus?

There is an invisible empire without boundary lines, without frontiers, unlimited by seas and rivers, an empire that dwells in all lands, the empire of mother love. Above the worlds battle fields, by the graves of the dead by the side of the tempted and sorrowing we discern the noble, the tender, the sympathetic face of the Eternal Mother, yearning over her children. The mother spirit is the perpetual need in all human relationships, in business, in politics, in schools, in churches, yes everywhere. Let that spirit become universal and we shall place the kingdom of this world at the feet of our Lord and Christ.

Third Term

Mrs. Frederick Paist, Wayne, Pa., who was re-elected president of the National Young Women's Christian Association at its convention in New York. This is her third term, as head of the organization.

The third mark of a mother's love is its unweariness in care. There is no strength so enduring as hers. No days are too long. No nights are too dark for her. What is the secret of it all? Simply the infilling of the Divine Motherhood, that is all. She draws her strength from the fountain of life.

Fourth, the relationship of motherhood is marked by sacrificialness of love. Why such sacrifice and love? Why such care? Love is the answer. That deep abiding love she breathes from the heart of God.

(United Press Sports Editor)
New York, May 12—Heavy hitting, which was one of the features of the early weeks of the 1924 major league baseball season might be accepted as proof that it was the lively ball more than the decline in pitching that changed the modern game.

Introduction of the lively ball, although the magnates stoutly denied any purpose of scattering Babe Ruth's around the two circuits, came shortly after the rule had been passed against the use of any foreign substance on the ball as an aid to the pitchers and they joined to bring about a wild orgy of slugging.

It was an obvious fact that something was wrong and as long as the league presidents persisted in claiming that no changes had been made in the construction of the ball, it had to be accepted that the pitchers had been handicapped too heavily by the rule against the spitter, the shiner, the emery ball and their first cousins of the trick trade.

Umpires were ordered to toss out of play any ball that bore the slightest evidence of tampering and they were so zealous in carrying out the strict letter of the rule that they would throw a new ball in play whenever a ball became soiled or when the hide became scuffed enough for a pitcher to get a hold on it that might make it do tricks.

Hitting, once a feature of the game, became so common that it was in danger of spoiling interest and taking all the science out of the game. To correct this evil the magnates last winter recommended that balls be kept in play longer so that pitchers would not be forced to work almost entirely with new balls.

Pitchers worked more effectively and it was noticeable that the volume of hitting had been decreased.

At the same time, however, it was shown when a heavy swinger took hold he got as much of a drive as he did in the past three seasons. While pitchers were able to hold their opposition to fewer hits, they were unable to keep the ball from taking its old ride when it got in front of a heavy swinging club.

In the first two weeks of the major league pennant races there were more home runs hit than there were during the corresponding period of the 1923 season.

The total home runs hit in both leagues during the first two weeks of the 1924 season was 75, against 57 hit in the same period the year previous. This year showed a decrease of four in the National League and an increase of twelve in the American League.

Some critics were of the opinion that the better form of the pitchers at the start of the pennant races this season was the result of better physical condition. It was pointed out that practically every manager in the major leagues was, more or less, decided about his infield and his outfield when he took his squad south.

KEEPING ONE EYE
ON THE SCOREBOARD

Three errors by Jackson kept Gairin in trouble and the Giants lost the second game of the western trip, the Cards winning 3 to 2.

The Athletics lost their eleventh straight game, the Indians copping 8 to 5.

Carlson was better in the pinches than Luque and the Phils beat the Reds 2 to 0.

FIGHTS AND FIGHTERS

New York—Johnny Dundee, junior for lightweight and featherweight champion, has been matched to meet Luis Vincentini, Chilean champion, at the Velodrome here May 28. Dundee's titles will not be at stake.

New York—Bad weather threatened to cause a postponement of the opening contest of the outdoor season between Harry Wills, negro heavyweight and Bartley Madden. The contest was scheduled for tonight in the new Queensborough stadium.

Polo Victim

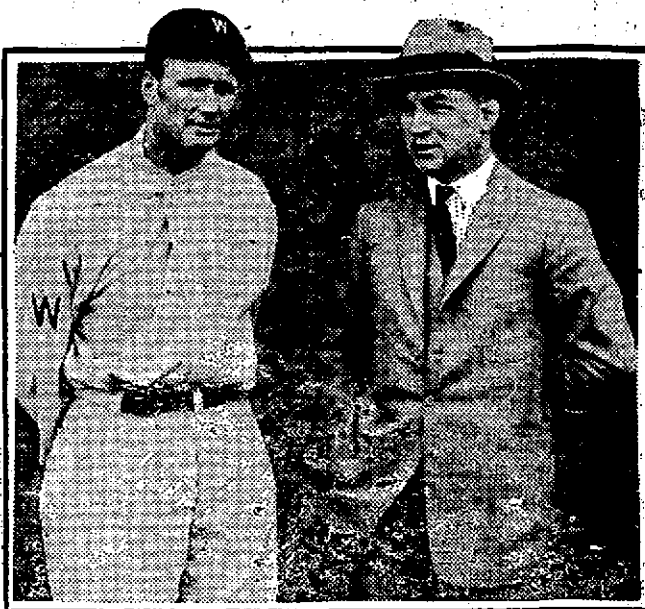

A. J. Devereaux, world-famed polo player and horseman, and wealthy Philadelphia society man, who was thrown so violently in several polo matches that his brain was injured, he was adjudged insane and sent to a Pennsylvania hospital for treatment.

STATED ASSEMBLY

Stated assembly of Rushville Council No. 41, will be held Monday night at 7:30 o'clock at the Masonic Temple, followed by chapter work in the Royal Arch degree.

Hard to Hit

Any batter in the American League will tell you it is tough to hit Walter Johnson, the fire-ball king of pitchers. And any fighter—not excepting Mr. Dempsey himself—will tell you it is no cinch to hit Tommy Gibbons, best defensive fighter in the ring. This picture was taken the other day at the Washington park when the fighter went down to the dugout to greet the noted pitcher.

GIANTS SLIPPING BADLY

(U. P. Staff Correspondent)
New York, May 12—International

games in the major leagues which will feature the pennant races for almost a month, are bearing out the contention that the two champion clubs have their most serious opposition in the west. The New York Giants, playing championship ball, rode wildly over the weaker eastern club and accumulated what looked like a commanding lead, but they slipped badly when they were given their first real challenge and they now have a lead of only a half game over the dangerous Cincinnati Reds.

Against the Braves, Robins and Phils, the Giant pitching staff looked as if it had obtained the very necessary help that was imperative to pull McGraw's team through what is generally accepted as a very hard battle, but the heavy hitting St. Louis Cardinals showed that the new pitchers picked up by the Giants were not the sensations that New York had believed.

The Giants hit their first slump against the poor Philadelphia Phils when they blew a pair of games just before they hit the road on their first trip of the season and they dropped two more against the Cards. The Cards are by record the weakest club in the west and the Reds, the Cubs and the Pirates should give the champions much more trouble than they are now having.

The losing streak of the Philadelphia Athletics has been one of the unusual features of the American League race. Connie Mack's team has dropped eleven games in a row and looks to be after a record. The Athletics were regarded before the season opened as one of the promising clubs in the league.

Terrible weather that has caused numerous postponements is playing a handicap on the New York Yanks that may prove heavy when Miller Huggins has to get into the double-headers.

MRS. HUBERT WORK DIES

Washington, May 12—Funeral services for Mrs. Hubert Work, wife of the Secretary of the Interior was held today at the White House and were attended by President and Mrs. Coolidge and other high officials. Burial was made in Arlington National Cemetery.

STEAL FURS WORTH $58,000

New York, May 12—Six men today overpowered two watchmen and stole furs valued at $58,000 from the factory of Shuster and Kloor-sain in Brooklyn. The bandits loaded the furs on a motor truck and escaped.

RALEIGH WINS GAME
GOING 13 INNINGS

SCORE IS TIED IN SEVENTH

The Raleigh baseball club and the Newcastle Red Sox, a fast colored team, went 13 innings in a well played game Sunday at Raleigh, in which Raleigh won out 5 to 4.

The two teams evened the score in the seventh inning, and it was not until the 13th that it was broken. The winning run was scored with one out.

Raleigh started the game with two scores in the first inning, and again scored two more in the fourth. The Newcastle team made three of the runs back in the sixth, and tied the score 4 to 4 in the seventh. Johnson for the visitors pitched a good game, while Gray and Craig did real work for the home team. Johnson fanned 16 during the 13 innings, Gray struck out 8 in 6 innings and Craig fanned 16 in 7 innings. Raleigh wants games with Arlington and the Rushville club. Frank Craig, RFD 1, Mays, is the manager. Score by innings:

Newcastle -- 000 003 100 000 0—4

MARTIN ORDERED

Martin told the handful of English speaking residents the story of how, shortly after noon on April 30, his plane had crashed into a mountain; how he and Harvey had picked themselves from the wreckage, salvaged their emergency rations and a few useful instruments and decided to walk across the snow to Port Moller—the nearest settlement.

Their course in the tramp was set by means of charts of the country carried in their flight and small compass salvaged from the wreck of the plane.

They finally reached a trapper's cabin which had been recently used and which not only offered them a chance to help themselves to food, but gave evidence that they were on a trail which would lead them out of the wilderness and to civilization.

AUTO FOR EACH 5 PEOPLE

Warsaw, Ind., May 10—Licenses issued through the local bureau of the state automobile department reveal the fact that there is one motor vehicle for every five persons in Kosciusko county. More than 5,000 automobile licenses have been issued while applications have been granted for nearly 1,000 trucks.

ANNOUNCE PLANS FOR 86TH COMMENCEMENT

Special Week for Wabash College Will Open Sunday, June 1, With Baccalaureate Sermon

GRADUATION TO BE JUNE 7

Crawfordsville, Ind., May 10—Plans for the 86th annual commencement exercises of Wabash college were announced today by Dr. L. H. Gipsen, head of a faculty committee on arrangements. Commencement week will open Sunday, June 1, with the baccalaureate sermon by Dr. George L. Mackintosh, president of the college, and will close with the graduation exercises Saturday morning, June 7.

Final examinations for the entire student body will be held from Monday to Thursday of commencement week. Thursday evening a dance, or some other all-college social function, will be given under the direction of a committee composed of Dean George W. Kendall, Professor J. A. Saunders, C. C. Deming, E. B. Africa and R. E. Strong. A baseball game between the seniors and the faculty is scheduled for either Thursday afternoon or Friday morning.

The faculty will meet Friday morning to pass on candidates for graduation and at 10 o'clock the same day the board of trustees will meet to authorize degrees to those

NO GAME DUE TO WET GROUNDS

Rushville Club will Officially Open Season Next Sunday

The baseball game scheduled with Arlington for Sunday afternoon was called off on account of the muddy condition of the grounds, and a game with this club will be arranged later.

Next Sunday will officially open the season, and the Real Silk club of Indianapolis will be the attraction. On account of the opening game, the club boosters are selling tickets at $1 and expect to realize $500 in this way to place the club on a sound basis for the start. The tickets are being sold in advance this week. The visiting team from Indianapolis won the title among semipro in that city last fall.

A TALK WITH A RUSHVILLE, MAN

Mr. Younger Tells Something of Interest to Rushville Folks

There's nothing more convincing than the statement of someone you know and have confidence in. That's why this talk with Mr. Younger of W. Tenth street, should be mighty helpful here in Rushville. A. M. Younger, retired farmer, 828 W. Tenth St., says: "At times my back got weak and lame and there was a dull ache through the small part. The kidney secretions passed too frequently, causing me to get up at night. Doan's Pills, from Johnson & Co.'s Drug Store, have never failed to relieve me."

OVER FIVE YEARS LATER, Mr. Younger added: "I think Doan's Pills are the best medicine for kidney trouble."

and Miss Humes. The afternoon was spent with music and in a social way.

Sunday afternoon at three o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lige Hankins in Second street, occurred the marriage of their daughter, Miss Jessie to Wallace E. Miller of Indianapolis in the presence of a number of their relatives and friends. The ceremony was solemnized by the Rev. Gibson Wilson, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, who used the Westminster wedding ring service.

The couple was attended by Miss Emma Hankins, sister of the bride, and Wilbur Laughlin of Indianapolis, a friend of the bridegroom. Mr. Miller is city salesman for Vonnegut Hardware company of Indianapolis. After the wedding the bride and bridegroom returned to the city where they have a home ready to occupy at 2005 North Illinois St., accompanied by the best wishes of their many friends.

Miss Dorothy Sparks entertained with a lovely luncheon-Bridge party Saturday afternoon at her home in North Perkins street, honoring Miss Katherine Wyatt, a bride-elect. The luncheon tables were prettily decorated in the color scheme of pink and orchid and covers were laid for eighteen guests. The dainty place cards were girls holding bouquets of flowers, which concealed the announcement of the approaching wedding of Miss Wyatt to Harold Perkins, of Indianapolis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Perkins of this city, to take place June 6. Following the serving of the delicious luncheon, the remainder of the afternoon was spent in playing bridge.

Miss Wyatt is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warder Wyatt of this city, and has been engaged as kindergarten teacher in the local schools during the past year. Mr. Perkins is also well known in this city, having graduated from the local high school and Wabash college, and is now connected with the advertising department of the Indianapolis News.

Among the guests present for the announcement party were Mrs. T. L. Jones, Wakefield, Kan., formerly Miss Mary Louise Poe, and Mrs. Katherine Wieland of Indianapolis, formerly Miss Katherine Wooden.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cotton entertained Sunday at their home northwest of Manilla in honor of Mrs. C. B. Stickney, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. James Smith of Carthage, Mo.

Those present were Mrs. Florence Hungerford and son Cyrus of Pittsburg, Pa., Mrs. India Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Raymond and son John Francis, Mrs. Minnie Raymond and son Joseph all of Waldron, Ind., Miss Josephine Cotton of Greensburg, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cotton of near Carthage, Mr. and Mrs. William Cotton of Columbus, Mrs. Anna Moss Tomlinson of Indianapolis and Lawrence Adams of near Terre Haute.

Besides the above, all the children were home to honor their mother on Mother's Day. These are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cotton and son Joseph Frederick of near Manilla, Miss Edna Cotton of Indianapolis and Albert F. Cotton of Rushville.

A most sumptuous dinner was spread at the noon hour and the afternoon was spent with music, both instrumental and vocal.

Mrs. Cotton was the recipient of lovely flowers and gifts from the children and friends as an expression of appreciation of her mother love and devotion.

Summer Fur

The flattering qualities of fur cannot be withstood by many women and even their summer coats must be bordered with it. Here is a charming French coat that is trimmed with maribou which has all the fluffiness of fur without its warmth or weight. This is a popular length in coats.

LATEST FADS IN THE SPRING STYLE

By HEDDA JOYNT
(Written for United Press)
New York, May 12—The vogue among the younger set for plaids brings out the plaid sports dress with the bright red patent leather belt, which is worn at a low waist-line, large plaid flannels, worsteds and gingham, made in simple, straight-lined frocks, are among the smartest of sports attire.

Gold and silver lace will play a prominent part in the Summer wardrobe this year. Gold lace is especially lovely on the golden or tiffany-haired person, while silver is best suited to the brunette. While gold and silver lace is usually worn over a foundation of either gold or silver metal cloth, the Spring tendency is towards the underplay of colored chiffon. Silver lace posed over Nile green chiffon is lovely, while gold over amber or scarlet is quite the rage.

Many of the most recent lace frocks are so simply made that the home dressmaker could easily copy them. Their bodices are all cut with the rounded neckline and low waist-line, and are sleeveless, while the skirts are quite full and often show the extended hip-line, being feather-boned at the hips.

The wearing of artificial flowers is fast becoming a fad in America. Boutonnieres of tiny mixed flowers are worn with the tailored suits, while orchids, gardenias, lotus buds and larger flowers are worn pinned to the fur collar of the long wrap or coat. At the popular dancing rendezvous one sees young girls with orchids placed over their ears. One very dark haired young miss wore yellow daisies at one side of her bobbed hair. Wearing one huge flower of velvet or silk on one shoulder or at the edge of the battened neck is popular. Bright colored flowers are also worn on scarfs of tulle or chiffon. Cor-sages of all sorts will be worn this Summer.

Gold and silver beads are the latest Parisian jewelry novelty. These come in choker necklaces made of beads the size of hazelnuts and in longer beaded of conical beads. Long pendant earrings with bead drops are worn with them. Huge pearl and gemmetal bead chokers are also worn with the tulle, as the choker seems to be the favorite necklace for the tailored mode.

From London comes a novel manner of wearing the pearl necklace. The pearls are stretched from shoulder to shoulder in battened effect and are held on the shoulders with bari- pins.

Now that the district conventions are over and club year books are drawing to a close, interest centers in the biennial convention at Los Angeles June 2 to 13.

Only a few will be fortunate enough to be able to attend but all club women are concerned in the policies formed by the mother federation.

It is a far cry from the first biennial convention held in Chicago in 1892, at which time there were 297 members from 185 clubs, representing 29 states. At that time the ladies were afraid to admit reporters, afraid to see their names in print. They had no civic intentions but were meeting purely for cultural improvement. The papers commenting, laid stress on the fact that it was the first gathering of women with no special reform in view.

At the last Biennial held at Chautauqua, N. Y., there were 12,000 clubs represented by 3,000 women coming from all states in the U. S., Alaska, Porto Rico, Hawaii and 17 foreign countries.

It is expected that the Los Angeles convention will entertain the largest crowd ever attending a biennial. There are now 25 foreign clubs federated and their representatives will appear on the programme on the "Foreign Relations" day.

Not only in size but in intention has the Federation outgrown its original simplicity. Calls are constantly coming in for aid in national movements. The president at Chautauqua received 168 such requests for presentation to the Federation.

of public interest without bias or partisanship.

"No prosperity without intelligent opinions" is the slogan and the Federation has been an important factor in creating and spreading public opinion in regard to national issues.

The club women of California financing this convention without the aid of men. Every club woman in the state will contribute 50c as her part of the entertainment fund. There are 70,000 women in the California Federation. They are noted for entertaining in generous style so 13 days of enjoyment is in store for all who attend this convention.

Mrs. William Forrest Bassett, soprano of Columbus, Ind., who gave a concert at the Main Street Christian church last Friday evening in observance of National Music Week, made quite an impression with the musicians in this city with her lovely soprano voice. Mrs. Bassett is a talented soloist and with her groups of solos, she rendered a splendid program. She has a very clear, sweet voice and sang with such ease that her audience were very much delighted with her numbers.

She was ably accompanied on the piano by Miss Jessie Kitchen, also of Columbus, but formerly a resident of this city. Miss Kitchen is also a talented musician, and has played in a number of recitals throughout the state.

The Columbus musicians were assisted in their program by Mrs. Frances Lyons Moore, a pianist of this city, who rendered one selection, and Miss Mary Louise Wyatt, violinist, who played a group of violin numbers. Both of the local musicians were well received by the audience.

The concert was given in observance of the special week and was sponsored by the Music Study Club of this city, members of which feel they were well repaid for their efforts.

Acute Disease vs Chronicity

Chiropractic Health Talk No. 65
By H. V. McCully, D. C., Ph. C.

QUESTION—"Is Chiropractic as effective in acute conditions as it is in chronic?"
ANSWER—"Yes, more so. All chronic conditions had to start in the acute form. In the acute stage the condition is easier corrected because the abnormal changes have not taken place in the body to such a degree as they have in the chronic stage.

Where we might correct an acute condition with two, three or four adjustments, if allowed to run into the chronic form, it might take two or three weeks' adjustments to get the same results.

"For thirty years I had been troubled with what physicians told me was kidney trouble, rheumatism and nasal catarrh. I also had a chronic headache and a persistent pain in the lower part of my back. I had to get up from three to six times a night with my kidneys and had not been able to breathe through the right side of my nose for years, my skin was dry and scaly, I had tried several physicians and all kinds of drugs, but without results.

I finally decided to consult Dr. McCully and McCully, Chiropractors. Although I was somewhat skeptical about Chiropractic, I started in, and I am glad to say that since my ninth adjustment I have not had to get up during the night and after the twelfth adjustment my nasal trouble cleared up completely and I can now breathe through both nostrils. My skin is normal and I have no cold. I am also free from rheumatism and pain in back. I feel like a new man.

There were no drugs, diet, etc., used—just straight Chiropractic adjustments. I do sincerely recommend Dr. McCully's health method to anyone who is not enjoying good health.
